

In short I would like to say that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone's Privacy Law and also that sinse the law has ben in effect, my time at home when answering the phone my attitude is more pleasant,in closeing why is it when ever you do something wright you try to do something wrong.